

IN THE CIRCLE OF SOCIETY

President Roosevelt Host Of New British Ambassador At Large Dinner Party

First Official Entertainment for the Rt. Hon. James Bryce—Last Official Appearance of Secretaries Shaw and Hitchcock.

THE President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained a dinner company in the White House last evening, when a most distinguished company gathered round the great table in the state dining room.

This occasion marked the first official appearance of the newly appointed Ambassador from Great Britain and Mrs. James Bryce, and the last official appearance of Secretary Shaw and Secretary Hitchcock.

The list of the guests was as follows: The British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce, the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Shaw, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Hitchcock, Mr. Justice and Mrs. McKenna, Representative and Mrs. Augustus Gardner of Massachusetts, the latter the daughter of Senator Lodge of Massachusetts; Representative and Mrs. Longworth, the Commissioner General and Mrs. Sharpe, Count and Countess von Hatzfeld-Trachenberg, the latter the daughter of the Japanese ambassador; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderbilt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Glover, Miss Kean, and Lieut. Cyrus R. Miller.

Mrs. Roosevelt wore an extremely becoming gown of pale blue satin brocade, trimmed with exquisite lace. Her table was decorated with cinerarias and violets, a combination which formed a charming picture in the stately dining room.

Alfred E. Stearns, principal of the Phillips-Anderson Academy, was entertained at luncheon yesterday in the Cosmos Club, and late in the evening at a smoker, given by George X. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Root, wife of the Secretary of State, is spending a few days in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont entertained at a dinner at the Cosmos Club last evening and at a musicale afterward, when several hundred guests were asked in.

Dr. and Mrs. MacDonald entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Senator and Mrs. Burrows of Ohio.

The Counselor of the French Embassy and Mme. de la Fosse and their daughter sailed for France yesterday from New York.

The German Ambassador and Baroness von Stenberg will sail for Germany early in the spring and spend the summer abroad.

Musicale By Society Performers

Mrs. Robert Hinckley entertained last evening at an interesting and very smart musicale. The program was given by the most distinguished musicians in society, and the guests numbered about one hundred. The music included a piano solo by Count von Hatzfeld-Trachenberg, the counselor of the German embassy; a song by Madame de Blampre, wife of the naval attaché of the French embassy, who has a splendid dramatic soprano voice, well cultivated; a piano solo by M. de Thial, second secretary of the Russian embassy; songs by Lee Phillips, a charming singer, wife of one of the most prominent of the officers of the Behn Meyer Foundation; a song by Mrs. Wendell, a violin solo by Miss Remey, daughter of Rear Admiral Remey; a song by Miss Harlan, daughter of Mr. Justice Harlan; a piano solo by Miss Putnam, daughter of the Librarian of Congress, and a piano solo by David Kildeberger, student at the Peabody Institute.

Among the guests were Rear Admiral O'Neill, Rear Admiral Roosevelt, Commander and Mrs. Hebbinhaus, of the German embassy; the Minister from the Netherlands, and Madame van Swinderen, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. de Blampre, Captain and Mrs. E. C. Ryan, the British ambassador, Constantin Bruin, Minister from Denmark; Lieutenant Jackson, U. S. A., Mrs. Jackson, and Miss Kate Jackson, Mrs. George M. Robinson, widow of a former Secretary of the Navy, and Miss Ethel Robinson, Mrs. Morgan-Hill, and Miss Morgan-Hill, Mrs. Chaffar, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Simpson, Mrs. Emory, Miss Ide, daughter of the former Governor of the Philippines; Mr. and Mrs. Dulany, Professor Swisher, William Bowie Clarke and Mr. Montgomery.

Mrs. W. F. Albertson and daughter, of New York, are guests of Mrs. L. E. Ballenger, at the Cordova, where they will be glad to see their friends tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

The "Utopians" gave their annual dance last night at Dyer's Hall, when the hall was brilliantly decorated in the club colors of blue and blue. The dance was served during the dancing and later in the evening there was a buffet supper. Those present were Misses Garner, of Newport News, Va.; Miss Violet Lettermann, Charlottesville, Va.; Miss Gussie Brock, Miss Sadie Eisman, Miss Estelle Hano, Miss Jeanette Gauss, Miss Selma Greenapple, Miss Hortense Sommer, Miss Mary Sommer, Miss Freda Weil, Miss Carrie Loeb, Miss Clara Strauss, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunsfield, and Nathan Weil, Milton Broch, George Stern, Wallace Luchs, George Goldenberg, Sydney Haas, Henry Sommer, Irving Sommer, Alfred Wolberg, Harry Loeb, and Dave Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Callisher, of the Van Cortlandt, have as their guest, the sister, Miss Cricket Furst, of New York.

The masque ball for children given last evening at National Rifle Association, by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Washington Hebrew Congregation, was a success, financially and artistically. The hall was gay with the children in fantastic, beautiful, and original costumes. The first group prize was won by the following, who represented those taking part in the seventy-first birthday anniversary of L. L. B. Eisman, Dorman, Morris Sellinger, Ike Haas, Morris Kohner, Jerome Grossner, Leroy Newmyer, Maurice Nordlinger, Lawrence Heller, Jeannette Eisman, Julia Kohner, Juliet Lichtenstein, Katherine Heller, Rosie Ercolano, Sophie King, and Rita Schiffman. The second group prize was won by Selma Sellinger, the "Tomb Raider Girl"; the second was Alma Baer, as "Old Woman in a Shoe"; the others were "Caruso," by Minnie Sheenah, "Tramp," Simon Wolf, "Mary the Newspaper Woman," Sylvan Fisher.

Red Roses; Red Room; Red Candles

Color Scheme of Mrs. Hobart's Large Luncheon Party.

Mrs. Hobart entertained a large company at luncheon today in the red dining room of the Willard. The table was tastefully decorated with red roses and red topped candelabra, and the list of guests included Mrs. Harlan, Mrs. McKenna, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Burrows, Mrs. Spooner, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Dryden, Mrs. Hopkins, Mrs. Bulkeley, Miss Perkins, Miss Kean, Miss Millard, Mrs. Timmons, Mrs. Dalcott, Mrs. Foster, Mrs. Manning, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Pinchot, Mrs. Wallace, Mrs. Sharpe, Mrs. Clover, Mrs. Edison, Mrs. Bradley, Mrs. Hornblower, Mrs. H. V. Butler, Mrs. Kuser, Mrs. Ross Thompson, Mrs. McCullum, Mrs. Sowers, Mrs. Shepard, Mrs. Richard Butler, Miss Patterson, Miss Thompson, Miss Mitchell, Miss Houghton, and Mrs. Garret A. Hobart, Jr.

Mrs. Herbert Vadsworth entertained last evening at one of her series of Thursday evening musicales. She had one of the most interesting and delightful programs of the season, with Francis McMillen, the young American violinist who recently made a successful debut in London, and a young soprano singer of much promise, Miss Bertha Hansen, a cousin of Theodore Hansen, the former well-known first secretary of the Russian embassy. She was also known everywhere as a brilliant pianist and musician, who would have made a name for herself had she adopted the concert stage as a profession. His cousin has inherited some of his family talent. Miss Hansen is only nineteen years of age, has lived in Washington since she was quite small and has by her soprano voice of much beauty and color in the upper register. She was delightfully accompanied by Arthur D. May, who sang Strauss' "Ständchen," Strelezi's "Dream," Charles Denece's "Lullabye," and Beethoven's "Nymphs and Satyrs." Miss Hansen made quite a success and was warmly congratulated by the hostess, who is herself a cultivated musician and by the guests. She is a girl with much personal beauty also, a stately blonde, with bright coloring.

Mr. McMillen made an equal success on this his first appearance in Washington. His numbers were Wagner's "Prelude," Ernest Blake's "Arioso," Dezza Lederer's "Poème Hongroise," the waltz from Max Richter's concerto in G minor; Raderger's Bohemian Dance, Jacques Hent's Legende Amoureuse, Schubert's "Die Forelle," Tschakovsky's "Chant des Paroles," and Franz Riez's "Chant Perpetuel Motion in all of which he showed himself a master of his instrument. Several hundred guests enjoyed the music in Mrs. Vadsworth's beautiful and artistic music room, where so many splendid programs have already been given before distinguished companies of music lovers.

Mrs. William Catto was hostess yesterday afternoon at a fancy dress masked ball for children in the Cairo. The children of Cairo and their friends were received in the drawing room, where they formed for the grand march to the ballroom. This was led by Mrs. Florence Schneider and William Harwood, grandson of Senator and Mrs. Warner of Missouri. Miss Schneider represented the Egyptian, and William Harwood, in a long ermine cape and gold crown, was plainly recognized as Old King Cole.

The other little guests were Gretchen Prescott, a Teddy Bear; Franklin Schneider, a very clever clown; Katherine Elmer, Mother Goose; a girl, her sister Florence, represented Red Riding Hood; Dorothy Mendell, daughter of Representative Mendell, a flower girl; and her small brother, William, a Native Indian chief; Helen Kimmel, a flower girl; Lillian Allen, a typical Dinah; Elizabeth Wilton, a maid; Louise Sullivan, daughter of Representative Sullivan, a Dresden shepherdess; "To-Do-Do," Kate, daughter of Representative Page, a Scotch woman; Mrs. MacDougal, Tom Thurnburgh, a sailor boy; Mary Casement, a pretty "Mary Mary Quite Contrary," who does your garden good; Ethel Schneider, a clown; Mildred de Hart, a flower girl; Lotie Evans, French; Madeleine Virginia Dixon, Japanese maid; Russell Goodrich, a farmer boy; Eugene Boughton, Jack of Hearts; Harvey Evans, sailor boy; Robert Sedman, a rose and Denah Savvy, Little Boy Blue. Those not in costume were Robert Bunch, Willard Bunch, Dorothy Yeager, and Robert Page.

Captain and Mrs. Qualtrough entertained a company at dinner last evening in their apartment in the Connecticut. The list of guests included Major and Mrs. Wilcox, Captain and Mrs. Sharp, Captain and Mrs. Bartlett, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell.

Mrs. Jackson, of Atlanta, Ga., who is spending a short time with Mrs. Richard J. Beall, of the Imperial, was the guest of honor of Mrs. T. C. Barbour at luncheon yesterday in the Willard.

Miss Pansy Perkins, daughter of Senator Perkins of California, was hostess last evening at a dinner of ten covers in her apartment in Stoneleigh Court.

Mrs. Austin Tobbs, of San Francisco, entertained a company of eighteen at luncheon at Rauscher's yesterday.

Mrs. Lisner was hostess at a luncheon of twenty-four covers yesterday in her home, in Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. Charles A. Stillings will not be at home tomorrow.

BIDDERS GIVEN TIME

It was announced at the Navy Department today that the opening of bids for the construction of the Great Lakes Naval Training Station will be postponed from April 1 to May 1. It was discovered that few persons were contemplating submitting bids, and more time was decided upon in order to give others who had become interested an opportunity to make thorough calculations.

The buildings and other structures will require an expenditure of approximately $2,000,000. The station will be at Lake Bluff, Ill., overlooking Lake Michigan, just north of Chicago.

Women's New Spring Suits

New models are arriving daily. Our stock has been gathered with care and reflects every phase of fashion. Here are smart tailored suits of every design—some plain tailored, others artistically trimmed in many styles. All through the stock you'll see the plain evidences of our underselling policy. Every line fairly well illustrates the claim that Goldenberg's values are best.

Chiffon Panama Cloth Suits, made in ton model, trimmed with taffeta bands stitched closely, and trimmed down the front and around the bottom of the garment. Lined with taffeta silk. Correct walking skirt, made with cluster panel of plaits, front, side and back. One of the new models. Regular $22.50 value at, $16.75

Stylish Box-coat Suits of mannish plaid cloths, in smart appearing light or dark gray mixtures. Double breasted front and hip pockets, semi-fitting back. Gray velvet collar. Lined with satin. Full plaited skirt. One of the new models. Regular $22.50 value at, $17.98

Eton Suits of gray cloth, in two shades of medium and light color small checks and invisible plaids. Strictly man tailored throughout, and trimmed with self cloth bands. Trimmed around collar with novelty wood silk braid to match and finished with snakeskin silk tie ends. Jacket lined with satin. Skirt of 13 zones, fitted up high and cut full around the bottom. Worth $18.00, for, $13.98

Black Voile Skirts

$4.98 for values worth $10.00 and $12.00

Two very stylish models. One style is made in the most elegant manner, with full side and box plaits. Another is made with full side plaits and full plaited bottom.

The fact that they are all BLACK CHIFFON makes the bargain all the bigger—for there's nothing dressier or more desirable than black.

Tomorrow we offer these 100 Walking Skirts, actually worth $10.00 and $12.00, for $4.98.

Men's Suits

Values worth $15 & $18 for $10

This men's clothing section has made a final cut in the prices of its popular lines of men's suits, and choice is now offered of any garment of the present season's stock which sold at $15 and $18 for ten dollars.

You seldom have the opportunity to buy clothing of such unquestioned merit and style at this price—but we are bent upon complete clearance and make the selling figure so low that these remaining suits will go out in a hurry.

The lot consists of medium and heavy weight Suits of Fancy Worsteds, Silk Mixtures, Overplaids, and Novelty Effects, in a variety of neat patterns. Every size in the collection—but not of each kind. Former prices, $15 and $18. Choice tomorrow at ten dollars.

Sale of Men's Hose
